This year at OHS the 10th grade SMART teams had a fund raiser for the Katrina victims. Five coaches were put challenged to raise the most money. Students dropped money into the coaches buckets to see which coach would have to kiss a pig! We raised $500! Coach Gillis had the most money in his bucket: therefore he had the joy of getting to kiss the pig!

DEAUTY DREVIEW

This year's beauty review consisted of sixty-one girls. All the girls were beautiful in their own way and it was very difficult for the judges to narrow it down. This years theme was "Must be an Angel" and each girl looked like an angel, indeed. Sixty-one girls were narrowed from fifteen to five but only one beauty was crowned, Megan Maharrey.

Homecoming Week

STUDENTS DISPLAYED SPIRIT ALL WEEK AND THAT SPIRIT WAS CARRIED ON INTO THE GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

Homecoming week is a chance for Oxford High students to showcase their pride in the Oxford Chargers in ways that make the week, in a word, entertaining. This year, the week kicked off with "Class Colors" day, featuring green, red, blue and brown- clad students filling the halls. Gender Bender Day, Tuesday's eventful theme, had the school in hysterics when so many boys came dressed as fairly convincing girls, and visa versa. By Wednesday, Twin Day, people were putting a new spin on things, wearing shirts reading "Twin #1" and "Triplet #2", even a group of "quadruplets" made the scene. Thursday's theme allowed students to become their Favorite Celebrity, with everyone from Spiderman to Audrey Hepburn strolling the hallways. After school, the Homecomeing Carnival and the hallway competition had students at the school until all hours of the night. The carnival, lasting from 3 to 6, featured booths sponsored by OMS clubs. Each booth offered games and prizes for a very small fee that went toward their club treasury. The booths on the OHS lawn varied from a cake walk (sponsored by Anchor Club) to a pie in the face booth (sponsored by the Freshman Student Council). By the end of the night four halls in OHS had received a Hollywood makeover by each separate class. "Rolling Out the Red Carpet", the homecoming theme, was displayed in grand proportions by the huge chicken wires that adorned the sidewalk, displaying everything from a squashed panther to the Junior class receiving an Oscar. By the time Friday rolled around, students, proudly sporting OHS HOMECOM-ING 2005 t-shirts, anxiously awaited the nights football game, that pitted the OHS Chargers against the Amory Panthers. The game, which the Chargers won 38-14, was a perfect end to the exciting week.

wearing their masquarade masks, students attended the Winter Formal hosted by Student Council at Johnson's Commons on Saturday, Dec. 17, from 8 p.m. until 11p.m. This year's theme is "A Winter Masquerade." Winter Formal is like the freshman and sophomore prom, according to organizer Megan Bryant, therefore, they created an elegant atmosphere at the formal. The walls were decorated with sparkling stars, green, red, purple, and blue balloons, and many mask floating around. Muisc for this year was provided by DJ and former Oxford graduate Brandon McDaniel and the band PF Flyers played for an hour to have some live music. Victorian Tea Party

The Victorian Era was time in Which a formal and polite attitude was the only way of life. Seniors in Mrs. West's English IV classes took a trip into the past with their annual 'Victorian Tea Party'. Falling on Valentine's Day, the party gives the seniors an inside look on the era that was featured in their poetry unit. True to the times, the students dressed in formal attire, ate petit fours and displayed impecable manners. For instance, it was customary of the time for any males at the table to stand when a lady stood, and never eat before the host began passing the food (always to the left!). The experience helped the students understand the times, and so, better understand the poetry.

BRENT BROWNLE

Prom ROCKED!! This year, as students listened to tunes spun by DJ Mont, they couldn't help but swarm onto the dance floor. Everything from "The Bootscootin' Boogie" to "My Humps" kept students dancing until the last minute. For the first time in years, Oxford High School crowned prom royalty. During a brief interlude in the dancing, Rachel Hudson and Chris Brower were crowned Prom Queen and King, with Demetria Vaughn and Brent Brownlee as Prom Princess and Prince. The prom kept roaring on later and later, and it seemed that the party would never end. "Tonight, Tonight"? It certainly was.

Bye-Bye Birdie

When the lights first came up on Bye Bye Birdie in 1975, the actors probably didn't know what they were starting. When the lights came up on Bye Bye Birdie for the second time in 1983, they had a pretty good idea. And in 2006, as Bye Bye Birdie became the last performance in the current auditorium, as it became the only show to be performed three times, and as the lights came up, you could see it on the faces of everyone involved: this was important! The annual OHS musical has become part of the culture of Oxford. It is anticipated and opening night, you can always find it packed. This year, the performance, if anything, raised the bar. "Every last person involved was wonderful," said John Davenport, the director.

There are an infinite number of wonderful things to say about the athletes at Oxford High. Sports are a big thing here and our athletes always show up for a game to give it all they have and even more. Get ready to explore the life of an athlete at OHS. As you continue on throughout this section, know that there is not one player that doesn't show up or give up at OHS.

we'll keep on fighting

The whistle blows, the clock starts, and everyone turns to watch how much strength and energy is being put forth into the game. As the game goes on we see the score change and emotions coming from the players and fans. If the officials could see our hearts, they would see how much effort is put forth, how much our athletes love their sport and how badly they want to win. Losing is a part of sports, but at OHS winning is a tradition that will continue on throughout the years to come at OHS.

11:00 SATURDAY, MAY 20, 2006. A DAY THAT MOST PROBABLY WON'T REMEMBER IN 20 YEARS, BUT FOR NOW, IT IS DAY TO MARK IN HISTORY. THAT DAY OHS SAID FAREWELL TO 165 SENIORS THAT WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. THEY WERE SCHOLARS, ATHLETES, ACTORS, ARTISTS, VOCALISTS, AND JOURNALISTS, AND THAT DAY, THEY MOVED ON, LEAVING THE HALLS OF OHS FOREVER (UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY A VISITORS PASS).

SHAD GREEN, KATELYN HERBERT, OMAYMA KISHK, JAKE MCGRAW, AND MARY ANNA WRIGHT GAVE SPEECHES THAT DAY THAT OFFERED ADVICE AND GAVE THANKS. THEY TOLD THE JANITORS HOW MUCH THEY WERE APPRECIATED. (below I) Too late for Kevyn Carothers...her brain already melted!! Arrgh! (below) Blake Beicher seems OK but Co-Editor Marya Paolillo is cracking under the pressure.

Kevyn thinks hard about her pages. She's a perfectionist!

Co-Editor, Nichole Hudson shows off some leg that she's been using to do all the leg-work with. There 's LOTS of legwork to put a yearbook together!

Well, we did it. We produced a tremendously stylized book that fairly represented the entire student body at OHS. Boy, was that difficult! There are so many factors to consier when planning a yearbook and those factors change again as you start laying out the pages.

Our staff took quite a few numbers of hits this year, but we perservered. The 2005 book was late because of so many technical difficulties, but when it finally arrived, it was worth the wait, many said. And then we found out that, as a whole staff, we wouldn't be returning. That was a difficult pill to swallow, having been together for three years, learning to first tolerate, then work together then love each other. We, as a staff had matured into a creative collective that had learned to KICK BUTT in the yearbook process. We will wish the next yearbook staff good luck from the sidelines. We hope that the new staff will work together as well as we have and will learn to love each other like the 14 of us did.

Teacher of the Year

"ONE OF THE REASONS I TEACH IS TO GET A LAUGH A DAY AND I GET IT AROUND HERE!" MARY STONE

Mary Stone was selected as the 2005-2006 Teacher of the Year by her colleagues. The World History and AP European History Teacher was chosen because of her outstanding teaching abilities, dedication to excellence and her ability to motivate her students. When told she had won the award. Stone said. "I was suprised...I was suprised." Not normally at a loss for words, she can be counted on to bring a smile or a giggle to almost everyone on a daily basis. When asked to comment on the award she said, "Oxford High School is really a wonderful place to teach. There is a remarkable faculty and truly outstanding students.

Retiring Teachers

Beth Fitts

After years of dedication which built a Nationally Award winning Journalism program, Beth Fitts is retiring. Fitts started out as an English teacher at Oxford High School and later switched to Journalism starting out with only hopes, dreams and one typewriter. Since then, OHS Charger newspaper has received the All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association every year since 1998, and has received Pacemaker Awards in 2001-2002, 2003-2004, and 2005-2006. Fitts was named the National Journalism Teacher of The Year in 2003. Beth Fitts is irreplaceable and will truly be missed.

Jane Metzger

Jane Metzger is ending her 34year teaching career. For the past nine years, Metzger has been teaching Algebra II and AP Calculus. In those years she also led the Math and Science Team, which placed first in the state the past five years. "Teaching is what I was supposed to be doing," Metzger said. "I've never looked back or wished I had done anything different." Though Metzger will be leaving OHS, she will still be seen around the school district, as she plans to mentor elementary math students. Jane Metzger will be missed by her students and colleagues.

Chase, We are proud of you! Love, Mom & Dad

A baby in September is what God sent to us one year And almost since that very day she's grinned from ear to ear. She's never met a stranger, and the people she's not met Are just some folks Em sees as friends she doesn't quite know yet.

Birth order made her middle child -- not so good some say. But her Daddy and I wouldn't want her any other way. She's smart and independent -- dependable through and through, And if she thinks you need her, She'll be right there for you.

Yes, our baby Emily will very soon be grown And before you know it, she'll be out on her own. Still, she'll always be our sweetheart whose twinkling brown eyes never dim --Compassionate, sensitive, caring -- yes, that's out little Em!

And besides her loving family, she loves her Lucky Girl and riding off in Rambo, they're off to greet the world!

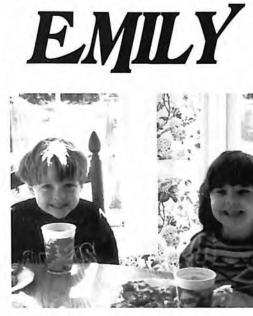

I have loved you with an everlasting love.

Jeremiah 31:3

Nichole. Let us first say how proud we are of you! You have made it through the first and one of the hardest chapters in your life.

You have stayed firm with what you believe in and have not backed down from that. You are very strong minded and we known you will accomplish your goals.

As you begin the next chapter in life, say strong and focused.

We love you very much! Mom. Dad. Courtney, Jordan, Granny, Papa, Meme, Pop & Big Papa

EDITORS CLOSING:

WE WOULD HAVE TO SAY THAT THIS YEAR HAS BEEN A TOUGH YEAR, NOT ONLY FOR US, BUT FOR EVERYONE. FROM ADJUSTING TO SMART TEAMS TO THE LOSS OF A GREAT FRIEND, WE HAVE LEARNED TO DEAL WITH THINGS IN THE BEST WAY WE KNOW HOW. THIS YEAR HAS HELPED US GROW INTO THE PEOPLE WE ARE ABOUT TO BECOME. ONE DAY WE WILL LOOK BACK ON THIS YEARBOOK AND SEE HOW WE HAVE CHANGED AND REMEMBER ALL OF THE MEMORIES OF OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL WE HOPE THAT THIS YEARBOOK MEANS AS MUCH TO YOU AS MUCH AS IT MEANS TO US, AND THAT ONE DAY YOU WILL ALSO REMEMBER ALL OF THE GOOD TIMES.

WE WOULD LIKE TO TAKE TIME TO THANK SOME PEOPLE THAT HAVE REALLY HELPED US ALONG THE WAY. FIRST, MRS. AUSTIN, FOR GUIDING US TO BE GREAT EDITORS AND SHOW THE WAY. TORS AND SHOWING US MORE THAN JUST THE BASICS IN YEARBOOK, BUT ALSO LIFE LESSONS. SHE HAS BEEN GREAT AND WE WILL MISS HER DEARLY. BLAKE BELCHER AND KEISHA BORUM FOR BEING GREAT WORKERS AND FRIENDS. THEY HAVE SHOWN HARD-WORK AND DEDICATION THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE YEAR. WE ALSO WANT TO THANK THE STAFF AS A WHOLE, FOR ENCOURAGING US TO KEEP GOING AND CHEERING US UP WHEN WE FELT THE THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY US UP WHEN WE FELT LIKE WE COULD NOT TAKE IT ANYMORE.

FOR THE FUTURE, WE WANT TO WISH EVERYONE GOOD LUCK! OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL IS JUST ONE OF THE FIRST CHAPTERS IN YOUR LIFE AND WE HOPE THAT YOU
