Celebrate...

Oxford High School
Oxford, Mississippi
Volume 12

Here, at last, is your 1982 Flashback. We who have brought it forth feel that it covers everything from pep rallies to term papers.

Much work has been put into this annual, but the end result made the extra hours well worth it. As you're looking through the pages, you'll remember moments, people, and events special to you. This remembrance is what an annual is all about.

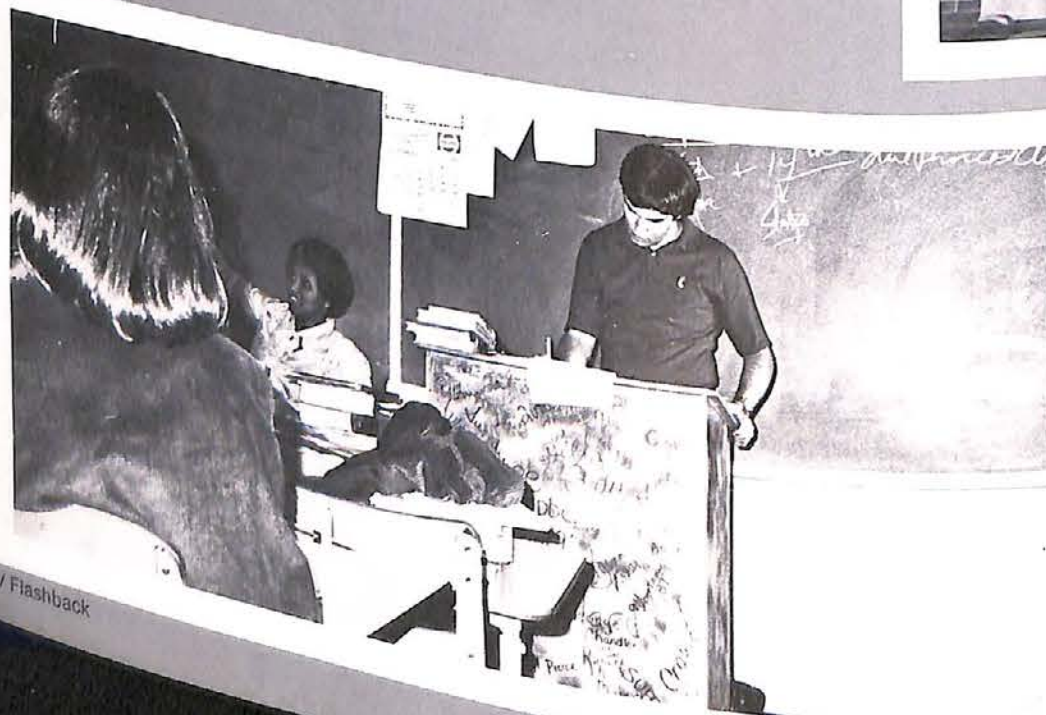

We are proud of this yearbook. We know you will be, too. Remember, we couldn't have put it together without YOU. Thank you for making it possible.

DEDICATION

This year we dedicate the Flashback to the man who practically runs Oxford High School. With a kind word and a friendly wave, he brightens the lives of all O.H.S. students. His hard work and helpful attitude exemplify the spirit of Oxford High. When the students and faculty are in need, he is always there to keep things in order. His dedication justifies our dedication of the 1982 Flashback to Mr. Stonewall Webb.

JUNIORS

This year for the JUNIORS has been one we'll long remember. Who could ever forget the pep rallies, ballgames, Homecoming, concerts, the Musical, the Junior-Senior Banquet, and Field Day? Our Award-winning cars in every parade and winning first place in hall decorations during Homecoming were major victories for the juniors this year. Not only have we dominated class competition, but we've shown fierce school spirit during the entire year, representing virtually every club, and activity in the school and in the community. Our school spirit will never die, 'cause "WE ARE — OXFORD HIGH!"

This year's Sophomore class has been through many new changes and experiences. We will never forget those long hours spent on decorating for pep rallies, pep parades, and the hall during Homecoming. Our excitement during football and basketball season was heightened as we watched the sophomore football and basketball players participate in a number of the games. Our school spirit filled the halls of Oxford High School during those times in class competition and especially Field Day. The selling of Valentine carnations, the Teacher's picnic and the OHS baseball and track team are events we look forward to this year. We will always remember the smiling faces and friendships of our upperclassmen who helped us make it through high school this year.

The Oxford High Flashback would like to thank all businesses whose advertisements helped make this annual possible.

IN APPRECIATION OF...

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and appreciation to a very special teacher. Mrs. Jo Hodge has been the Flashback adviser for the past four years. Next year she will be living in Jackson, Mississippi, and her presence at Oxford High will be greatly missed. Her patience, understanding, and dedication as the annual adviser, as well as a teacher, are of a rare quality. Her way of being a friend to the students while maintaining her position as a teacher is a trait that has made her dear to us. We will always remember her as a much appreciated and very special teacher.

This year at Oxford High has been one of good times which will soon be fond memories in the hearts of many O.H.S. students. It has been filled with everything from a test on the Iliad before class discussion to students yelling their hearts out at pep rallies and games, painting signs, completing term papers, and trying to get teachers off the subject of their daily lesson plans. We hope the work that we have put into this annual will help you relive these memories. Another year has come and gone at Oxford High, but if at some time in the future, looking through this annual brings back memories of days spent here, then this annual will have achieved its purpose.
